

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

Effective Date: February 23, 2021

The purpose of this Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”) is to define the standards and values which B2Gold Corp. (the “Company”) expects its personnel to follow in all of their dealings with stakeholders and activities with the Company. This Code applies to all personnel of the Company and all of its subsidiaries, affiliates, joint ventures and any other entity controlled by the Company (collectively, the “B2Gold Group”), including every director, officer, employee, consultant and contractor of the B2Gold Group (the “B2Gold Personnel”).

The Code states basic principles that should guide the affairs of the B2Gold Group and addresses certain specific situations, but it is not intended to be comprehensive. B2Gold Personnel are encouraged to seek guidance on specific issues, particularly with respect to potential conflicts of interest. All questions by employees pertaining to this Code should be directed to the B2Gold Personnel’s supervisor or the B2Gold Group’s local Human Resources Officer. All questions by consultants and contractors should be directed to the employee responsible for supervising their work (the “Supervising Employee”). If in doubt, the supervisor, the local Human Resources Officer, or the Supervising Employee will seek the advice of the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Company to determine whether or not outside legal counsel should be consulted regarding the matter.

The Company’s Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee (the “Governance Committee”) is responsible for setting the standards of business conduct contained in the Code and updating these standards as it deems appropriate to reflect changes in the legal and regulatory framework applicable to the B2Gold Group, the business practices within the Company’s industry, the Company’s own business practices, and the prevailing ethical standards of the communities in which the B2Gold Group operates. While the Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”), through the Governance Committee, will oversee and monitor compliance with the Code, it is the individual responsibility of each B2Gold Personnel to comply with the Code. Each B2Gold Personnel is expected to read and become familiar with the Code and may be required, from time to time, to affirm in writing his or her compliance with the Code. Additionally, all B2Gold Personnel should read, understand, and follow the Company’s Disclosure, Confidentiality and Insider Trading Policy, Anti-Corruption Policy and Whistleblower Policy. This Code should also be provided to and followed by suppliers, agents and representatives, including advisors, engaged by the B2Gold Group, as though such parties were B2Gold Personnel, to the extent applicable pursuant to the Code and other policies of the Company.

1. Guiding Principles

All B2Gold Personnel must:

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company;
- (b) exercise due care, diligence and skill in fulfilling the functions of their position;
- (c) avoid conflicts of interest between work and personal affairs;
- (d) exercise the powers attached to their employment, engagement or other relationship with the B2Gold Group and use the assets of the B2Gold Group for the purposes for which they were intended;
- (e) demonstrate honesty, truthfulness, respectfulness and integrity in all business dealings and interactions with the B2Gold Group's shareholders, customers, suppliers, competitors and other employees; and
- (f) act in accordance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations, adhere to the ethical standards set out in the Code and follow the Company's policies and procedures. For certainty, if any applicable law conflicts with a policy in this Code, B2Gold Personnel must comply with the applicable law. If a local custom or policy conflicts with this Code, B2Gold Personnel must consult with the Governance Committee and comply with this Code, unless a waiver is obtained pursuant to Section 16.

2. Special Responsibility of Leaders

B2Gold Personnel who are directors, officers, supervisors and Supervising Employees have an important responsibility to promote an ethical and compliant workplace. Such individuals must lead by example, while remaining watchful for potential misconduct, and must fully understand this Code, be able to explain and discuss it with those who report to them and encourage others to come forward with concerns. This includes taking the time to listen to others' concerns and questions, developing a relationship of trust with other B2Gold Personnel, and reporting acts of misconduct. Such individuals must ensure that the B2Gold Personnel they supervise feel confident that they can discuss their questions and concerns with them without fear of retaliation.

3. Conflicts of Interest

- 3.1. All B2Gold Personnel have an obligation to act in the best interests of the Company at all times. Further, B2Gold Personnel are required to avoid situations where their personal interests interfere or might appear to interfere in any way with the interests of the Company.

- 3.2. A conflict of interest will arise when B2Gold Personnel must choose between the Company's best interests and their personal interests, including when such B2Gold Personnel has personal interest in a B2Gold Group transaction. Any situation where the judgment of such B2Gold Personnel may be compromised, where he or she shows undue favoritism to any party or where he or she, or a member of his or her family, receives a personal benefit of some kind, or where it even appears that one of the above is true, is potentially a conflict of interest. All B2Gold Personnel must strive to avoid situations that create a conflict, create the potential for a conflict or create the appearance of a conflict. If a B2Gold Personnel becomes aware of a transaction or relationship (including those involving family members) that could reasonably be expected to give rise to a conflict of interest, he or she should promptly disclose the matter to their supervisor or Supervising Employee or the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel in accordance with Section 3.3.
- 3.3. Where an actual or potential conflict of interest may exist, then B2Gold Personnel must immediately disclose the conflict to: (a) their supervisor or Supervising Employee, who must then report the matter to the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel; or (b) directly to the Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel. The Company's Executive Vice President and General Counsel must report all conflict of interest matters to the Governance Committee and may refer such matters to the Governance Committee for determination as necessary. Failure to disclose and report a conflict of interest is a violation of this Code.
- 3.4. If required by the Board, where a director of the Company has a conflict of interest, such director shall retire from any meeting of the Board while discussion on the applicable material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction of the Company is taking place and shall refrain from voting on the subject under consideration, but this will not prevent the Board from calling him or her into the meeting to answer any questions regarding the matter under discussion nor shall it release the director from his or her obligation to inform the Board.

4. Use of B2Gold Group Resources

- 4.1. All B2Gold Personnel are to safeguard and use the B2Gold Group's resources for legitimate B2Gold Group business purposes only. The B2Gold Group and all B2Gold Personnel will take steps to prevent theft, carelessness and any manner of significant waste that has a direct impact on the B2Gold Group's profitability. 5. Corporate Opportunities

Opportunities which become available to a B2Gold Personnel by reason of his or her employment, engagement or other relationship with the B2Gold Group must be disclosed to the Company and be treated as if belonging to the B2Gold Group. B2Gold Personnel are prohibited from using B2Gold Group property or information for personal gain, taking personal advantage of opportunities that are discovered through the use of B2Gold Group property or information, or competing with the B2Gold Group. Release of such information may be harmful to the B2Gold Group, other B2Gold Personnel, suppliers, customers, and other persons or entities with whom the B2Gold Group does business, and in some cases may be illegal. B2Gold Personnel must use extreme care when dealing with confidential information to ensure that such information not be released to anyone inside or outside of the B2Gold Group who is not authorized or legally entitled to receive it. Personal information must be dealt with in accordance with all applicable privacy laws.
- 6.4. The foregoing obligations of confidentiality are subject to applicable whistleblower laws, which protect the right of B2Gold Personnel to provide information to governmental and regulatory authorities. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Code, any other Company policy or any agreement relating to B2Gold Personnel, B2Gold Personnel are not required to seek the B2Gold Group's permission or notify the B2Gold Group of any communications made in compliance with applicable whistleblower laws, and the Company will not consider such communications to violate this or any other Company policy or any agreement between the B2Gold Personnel and the B2Gold Group.

B2Gold Personnel are also prohibited from entering or discussing any unlawful arrangement that may result in unfair business practices or anticompetitive behaviour.
